DAY 2 / 19 Oct	Tbilisi full day City Tour		PRIVATE	80 KM / 7 HR

10:00 – Your Tbilisi day begins when you meet your driver at the hotel and start exploring the capital's rich history, culture, and iconic landmarks.

10:30 – Visit the Chronicles of Georgia, one of Tbilisi's most impressive monuments. Overlooking the Tbilisi Sea, the massive pillars depict important scenes from Georgian history and Christianity while offering spectacular panoramic views of the surrounding area.

11:30 – Continue to Old Tbilisi and explore its charming narrow streets and colorful balconies. Visit Metekhi Church, perched above the Mtkvari River, and admire the monument of King Vakhtang Gorgasali, the founder of Tbilisi. Walk through Rike Park and cross the modern Bridge of Peace.

13:30 – Take the cable car to Narikala Fortress and enjoy breathtaking views over the city. Visit the Mother of Georgia statue, symbolizing the country's hospitality and strength. Descend through Abanotubani, the historic sulfur bath district, pass the city's only mosque, and stroll around the lively Meidan Square filled with cafés, wine bars, and souvenir shops.

15:30 – Head to Mtatsminda Park via the funicular railway. Enjoy stunning views during the ascent and take in the magnificent panorama of Tbilisi from the top, where the city, river, and surrounding hills unfold before you.

17:00 – Return to your hotel with wonderful memories of Tbilisi's unique blend of history, culture, and modern life.

Entry Fees: Narikala Cable car - 2 Ways Entry tickets (Included) • Funicular Tram Ride - 2 Ways (up & down) Entry tickets (Included)

09:00 – Meet your driver at the hotel lobby and start your journey north along the famous Georgian Military Highway, heading toward the border with Russia.

10:30 – Stop at the Jinvali Water Reservoir, a large lake created during the Soviet era. Take about 20 minutes to enjoy the views before continuing toward the Ananuri complex.

11:00 – Arrive at the Ananuri complex, a historic fortress and former residence of the Argveti Dukes. The complex sits beautifully above the Jinvali Reservoir and includes churches and towers from the 16th and 17th centuries. Explore two churches, including the older one built in 1689 with carvings of grapes and crosses that reflect Georgia's rich culture.

11:30 – Continue your drive to see the meeting point of two mountain rivers, famous for keeping their different colors even after they merge. On the way, taste fresh mineral water from the mountain springs in Mleta.

13:00 – Arrive at Gudauri and enjoy this mountain town. Drive over the Cross Pass and stop at the Soviet-era "People's Friendship" viewpoint for spectacular views of the deep Caucasus gorges.

14:00 – Reach Kazbegi (Stepantsminda) and switch to a 4x4 vehicle to drive up to Gergeti Holy Trinity Church. From here, enjoy breathtaking views of Mount Kazbegi and the surrounding mountains.

16:00 – Start the drive back to Tbilisi.

18:00 – Arrive at your hotel, ending the tour.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Terms:

1. Booking & Inclusions

Only the services explicitly mentioned in the package inclusions are covered. Tickets for attractions, museums, trains, cable cars, ferries, rides, safaris, or similar activities are not included unless clearly specified.

2. Payment Terms

All bookings must be confirmed with the required deposit or full payment, as communicated at the time of booking. Failure to complete payment within the specified time may result in automatic cancellation of the booking.

3. Passport & Travel Documents

All travelers must ensure that their passports are valid for at least six (6) months from the date of travel. Travelers are responsible for arranging and carrying all necessary travel documents.

4. Visa Assistance

We only assist with visa applications. The approval, rejection, or delay of a visa is solely at the discretion of the respective embassy. In such cases, no refunds will be provided, and standard cancellation policies will apply.

5. Travel Insurance

All travelers are required to obtain comprehensive travel insurance covering medical emergencies, trip cancellations, delays, and loss of personal belongings. It is mandatory to have valid travel insurance for entry and travel in the destination country, and travelers may be required to present proof of insurance upon request.

6. Cancellations & Refunds

All cancellations and refund requests are subject to our Cancellation Policy. Please review it carefully before confirming your booking.

7. Service Fulfillment

We reserve the right to cancel bookings and issue a full refund if we are unable to deliver the services due to technical or operational reasons.

8. Itinerary Changes

Itineraries are subject to change due to weather conditions, operational requirements, or unforeseen circumstances. We will make reasonable efforts to provide suitable alternatives where possible.

9. Transfers & Transportation

- o Changes to private airport or train station transfers must be requested at least 24 hours in advance.
- o Requests made within 24 hours will incur 100% cancellation charges.
- o For private tours and transfers, drivers will wait a maximum of 10–15 minutes from the scheduled pickup time.
- o If you are unable to locate your driver, you must contact the operations manager with your full name and booking confirmation number.
- o We are not responsible for delays caused by traffic, accidents, weather conditions, vehicle breakdowns, or other unavoidable circumstances.

10. No-Show Policy

If you fail to arrive at the designated meeting point on time and the tour departs, it will be considered a no-show, and no refund will be issued.

11. Accommodation Policy

Hotels may require a security deposit at check-in, as per their policy. This deposit is refundable at check-out, subject to deductions for minibar usage, damages, late check-out, or other incidental charges. Standard hotel check-in and check-out times apply.

12. Child Policy & Pricing

Pricing and tickets for children are based on the age provided at the time of booking. If additional charges arise due to incorrect information or based on height/age verification (as per passport), the extra cost must be paid by the customer on-site.

13. Luggage Responsibility

Guests are responsible for handling their own luggage. Porter services are not included unless explicitly stated.

14. Health & Safety

Travelers are responsible for ensuring that they are medically fit to travel and participate in all planned activities. Any pre-existing medical conditions, disabilities, or special requirements must be disclosed in advance of the trip. Travelers must also inform us in advance of any dietary requirements, food allergies, or other food-related restrictions. If such information is not provided prior to the trip, we cannot guarantee that these requirements will be accommodated, and we shall not be held responsible for any issues arising from the lack of prior notification.

15. Traveler Conduct

Travelers are expected to behave respectfully at all times and comply with all local laws, customs, and cultural norms of the destination country. This includes showing appropriate respect toward religious sites, traditions, and local communities.

Travelers are also expected to maintain proper hygiene and cleanliness standards, including keeping vehicles, public areas, and accommodations clean and in good condition.

Any form of inappropriate, disruptive, or offensive behavior—including damage to property or actions that negatively impact other travelers or service providers—will not be tolerated.

We reserve the right to terminate services without refund for any traveler whose conduct is deemed unacceptable.

16. Liability Limitation

We are not liable for any injury, loss, damage, accident, delay, or irregularity that may occur due to acts or omissions of third-party service providers or circumstances beyond our control.

17. Force Majeure

We shall not be held responsible for any failure or delay in performance due to events beyond our control, including but not limited to natural disasters, pandemics, war, civil unrest, government restrictions, or other unforeseen circumstances.

18. Local Laws & Regulations

Travelers must comply with all applicable local laws and regulations of the destination country. Any fines, penalties, or legal consequences arising from non-compliance shall be the sole responsibility of the traveler.

19. Emergency Contact & Support

Travelers are advised to keep emergency contact details and the service provider's contact information accessible at all times during the trip.

By proceeding with the booking, you indicate your acceptance of these terms and conditions.
If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to reach out to our customer support team.
Thank you for choosing our services!

DO'S AND DON'TS

Do's:

- Experience Georgian Hospitality: Georgians are known for their warm hospitality and generosity. Accept invitations to supra (traditional feasts) and engage in conversations with locals to experience true Georgian hospitality.
- Respect Local Customs: Embrace Georgian culture by learning about local customs and traditions. Greet people with a friendly "Gamarjoba" (hello) and be courteous and polite in your interactions.
- Explore ancient culture of the country
- Always carry some cash as you can not pay by card everywhere
- Visit only trusted and verified bars & Restaurants
- Try Georgian Cuisine: Sample traditional Georgian dishes such as khachapuri (cheese-filled bread), khinkali (dumplings), and pkhali (vegetable spreads).

Don'ts:

- Don't Disrespect Religious Sites: When visiting churches and monasteries, dress modestly and adhere to local customs. Avoid loud conversations and behavior that may be considered disrespectful.
- Don't Drink Tap Water: While Georgia's tap water is generally safe for locals, it may not be suitable for tourists due to differences in immunity. Stick to bottled water to avoid potential health issues.
- Don't Overlook Safety Precautions: Exercise caution when exploring nature and participating in outdoor activities. Be mindful of your surroundings, follow safety guidelines, and take necessary precautions to ensure your well-being.
- Don't Forget Travel Insurance: Before traveling to Georgia, make sure you have comprehensive travel insurance to cover any unforeseen emergencies or medical expenses. It's better to be prepared for the unexpected.
- Do not litter in the street or sightseeing surroundings, use garbage cans
